

Writer Alert: View Camera

September 9, 2005

View Camera Magazine, located in Corrales, New Mexico, currently owned by Mr. Steve Simmons, owes a member of the British National Union of Journalists (with which we have a reciprocity agreement) $375.75 for an article he wrote and published in View Camera Magazine in the 2004 September/October issue. Despite numerous phone calls, invoices, emails and letters sent both by the writer and by an NWU Grievance Officer, the owner has not made payment.

Writers, photographers and other freelancers should take these facts into account before submitting work to View Camera Magazine.
